Here are some updates regarding the Son-Shine Counseling Center (SSCC):

- 1) We have a new clinician, Helen McClain, LCSW, and she has many skills, with special expertise in working with athletes. She desires to develop special programs related to Sports Psychology.
- 2) The SSCC now has three bilingual therapists to better serve our bicultural community.
- 3) Please check out our new website and forward this email to an interested party. Go to www.son-shine-counseling.com
- 4) Special Saturday programs are available for pregnant clients. One desire is to start a support group, but individual counseling can help to reduce the stress of pregnancy, improve parenting and resolve problems in relationships.
Questions, call 353-5059 or for Spanish speaking folks, 353-7667.
