Jake James Municipal Sports Park Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

On Saturday, October 17, 2009 the Jake James Municipal Sports Park came alive! The City of Westmorland hosted a ribbon cutting event for the newly built concession stand and restrooms. The project was funded by the Community Development Block Grant (10% set-A-Side Program) and a Land & Water Conservation Grant. In addition to the above listed dignitaries and Mr. James' family, there was an abundant of community members and included an 80th year birthday celebration for Mr. James. The ribbon cutting was followed by a fundraiser held by the Westmorland Booster Club and fun and games for the town youth.
