Westmorland Elementary School district welcomes Nancy Johnson

As their new superintendent and principal. Johnson, who attended WUESD herself from kindergarten to eighth grade, began her teaching career at Brawley Elementary School District.

Since then, she has been in numerous educational roles across the Imperial Valley, including teaching in the Holtville and Meadows Union elementary school districts and serving as a student advisor in San Diego State University-Imperial Valley campus' summer session intern program. She has also held several positions within the Imperial County Office of Education.

Johnson said she was looking forward to her new dual-role and working with a "fabulous staff." "I have a lot of roots entrenched in the Westmorland area," she said proudly. "Being an educator is a labor of love and I cannot imagine a better place to invest my time and energy so that I may give back to the community I call home."
